NATIONAL DYNAMITE SERIES 11, 12 & 13 GIRLS AND BOYS

BMX Australia are introducing an exciting new series for 11,12 and 13 year old riders wishing to compete against the best BMX Riders in Australia.

The national Dynamite series is an initiative by BMX Australia and the states for riders who compete in their state series and qualify for the National final of the Dynamite series at the 2011 National championships. BMX Australia will be developing this series and in the future will be looking to implement the framework into a series for the 8, 9 and 10 year old riders.

This series will showcase the best riders from all around Australia competing at the nationals for the chance to be BMX Australia National Dynamite series champion and bloods the riders to take the step up into the probikx/champbikx series when they are older.

BMX Australia are exciting about this initiative rewarding talent at the grass roots level with a prizes and medals awarded at the end of the series.

For further information contact your state association for dates of rounds.

Further information will be released in the future.
